ONE ACADEMY CIRCLE
CANANDAIGUA, NEW YORK 14424

VOLUME 105 ENROLLMENT 1385

A DIFFERENT POINT OF VIEW

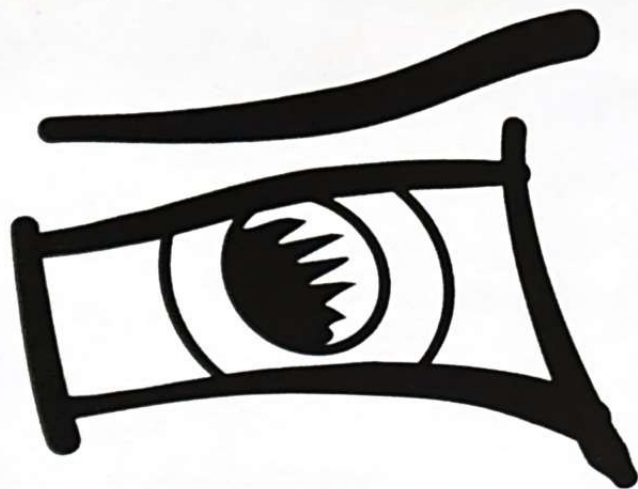

IN OUR SCHOOL, SO MANY DIFFERENT INDIVIDUALS EXIST. EVERY SINGLE PERSON HAS A DIFFERENT WAY OF THINKING, A DIFFERENT WAY OF LIVING, AND A DIFFERENT WAY OF ACCOMPLISHING. WE ALL LOOK AT EACH OTHER THROUGH A DIFFERENT SET OF EYES. SOMETIMES IT IS HARD FOR US TO UNDERSTAND WHY ANOTHER IS SO UNLIKE OURSELVES. WE CANNOT OPEN OUR MINDS ENOUGH TO EVEN CONSIDER WHY THAT OTHER PERSON LIVES THE WAY THEY DO. BUT WE MUST NOT STEREOTYPE PEOPLE, AND WE MUST NOT MAKE FALSE JUDGMENTS BEFORE WE EVEN ALLOW OURSELVES TO GET TO KNOW THE PERSON. UNFORTUNATELY, THAT IS NOT HOW OUR SOCIETY WORKS.

"THERE MAY BE A HUNDRED THINGS YOU KNOW ABOUT A PERSON -- ALL OF THEM BAD. BUT THERE MAY BE JUST ONE THING YOU DON'T KNOW, WHICH IF YOU DID KNOW, WOULD COMPLETELY CHANGE YOUR OPINION." ~UNKNOWN~

AS TEENAGERS, WE TEND TO CLING TOGETHER, FORMING OUR OWN CLIQUES AND HANGING OUT WITH PEOPLE WHO HAVE SIMILAR QUALITIES. AND THEN WE JUDGE. WE MAKE FUN. WE HATE. INSTEAD, WE SHOULD OPEN OUR HEARTS TO EVERYONE. AFTER CONSIDERING OUR POINT OF VIEW ON LIFE, WE SHOULDN'T LIMIT OURSELVES TO CLINCHED OPINIONS. WE MUST TAKE LIFE WITH A POSITIVE OUTLOOK IN ORDER TO SUCCEED. HOPEFULLY THE EXPERIENCE AT THE CANANDAIGUA ACADEMY HAS BROUGHT AT LEAST ONE UNIQUE INSPIRATION TO EACH OF US; HOPEFULLY AN IMPORTANT LESSON HAS BEEN LEARNED THAT WE CAN BRING WITH US AS WE BEGIN THE REST OF OUR LIVES.

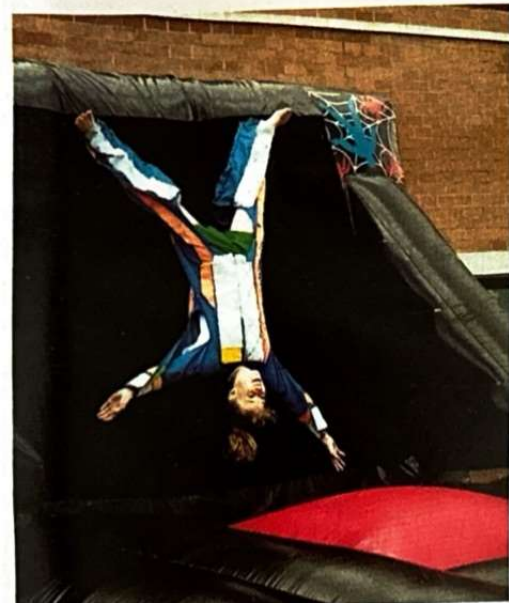

By TALIA MOTA

LET GO OF YOUR ATTACHMENT TO BEING RIGHT, AND SUDDENLY YOUR MIND IS MORE OPEN. YOU'RE ABLE TO BENEFIT FROM THE UNIQUE VIEWPOINTS OF OTHERS, WITHOUT BEING CRIPPLED BY YOUR OWN JUDGMENT.

DEDICATION

Through the superlatives, the effective fragments, the parallelism, the writer's circles, the fishbowls, the Writer's Options assignments, the essays, the benchmarks, the grammar lessons, The Scarlet Letter, the "GAK", and especially the Giants, Mrs. Nacca, it seems, always flourishes a bright and cheery smile. Her toothy grins brighten the spirits of students and teachers alike. Seldom does she ever jaunt around the point she is making. To her, the students she teaches become not only a tightly knit "community of writers," but also, through her wisdom and astuteness, a very competent group of writers. And those Giants! Mrs. Nacca will work tirelessly over the course of a weekend to correct the papers of her students, until Sunday. When Sunday rolls around, she becomes mindful only of those blue and white gridironers. Oh, and don't ask her if she's a Mrs. or a Ms. or a Miss; all she'll tell you is that she "worked long and hard to get Joe Nacca."

-Matt Libera

"She obviously cherishes the kids she teaches... she's very perceptive about what makes each kid interesting."

-Ms. Joann Hinz

"It's a very bad thing to terminate the illumination."

-Mrs. Kathy Nacca

Amidst the questions

of my dreams,
of my life

April,
I hope your year
at CC is happy
ones. Good luck
making next year.
J. Coan

There comes a gentle strength
that says:

"Hold on, hold on.
Your poem
your game
your answer -- they are real they await.

Find them in the tall grasses
swaying with the breeze
out among the apple trees.

In the tall grasses
and the soft flowing hair of the child
gliding through the field.

In the blowing grasses
across whose tops
my love wafts
day upon day.

"Come, come.
Be willowy
be wispy.

There is strength
in the sway
of the grasses
strength beyond knowing
in the child's streaming hair.
For you, for you."

-Joe Nacca

"Her work ethic spreads to the kids it's reasonable for her to expect a lot of hard work from

REMINISCE

LOOK BACK THROUGH OUR EYES,
ON EVERYTHING THAT WE HAVE DONE.
I'M SURE WE'LL WISH WE DID MORE.
BUT NO ONE CAN SAY WE DIDN'T HAVE ANY FUN.
MAYBE WE COULD HAVE BEEN KINDER,
AND MAYBE A LITTLE MORE SINCERE.
BUT NOW THIS IS THE END LINE,
AND TODAY WE HAVE NEW THINGS TO FEAR.
OUR EXPERIENCES CANNOT BE SUMMED UP, IN A FEW LINES OR VERSE.

IT WOULD TAKE TOO LONG TO PRINT THE BEST TIMES, OR EVEN THE WORST.
THESE EYES OF OURS HAVE SEEN EVERYTHING,
ALL THAT HAS HAPPENED IN THE LAST FOUR YEARS.
WE CAN NEVER REGAIN THE INNOCENCE OF OUR LAUGHTER,
WE CAN NEVER BOTTLE ALL THE TEARS.

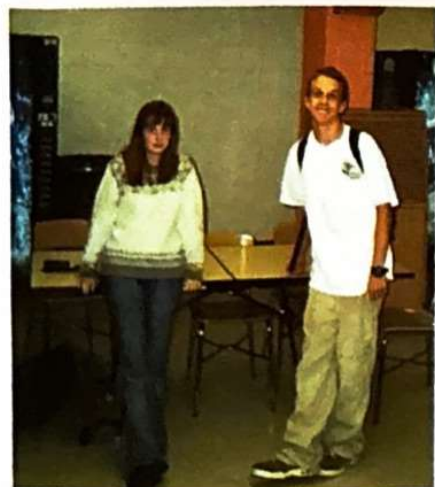

I THINK NOW AT THIS POINT,
AS WE REACH THIS YEAR'S END,
WE REALLY DON'T NEED TO SAY ANYTHING,
THERE'S NO BIG UNDERLYING MESSAGE TO SEND.
IT'S EASY TO SEE HOW IT TURNED OUT,
IN THE EYES OF THOSE CLOSEST TO YOU.

IT IS THEY WHO CAN REMIND US,
OF ALL THE ADVENTURES WE WENT THROUGH.
IT'S OUR TIME TO STEP INTO THE FUTURE,
THERE IS NOT MUCH MORE TO SAY.
EVERYONE KNOWS WE'LL NEVER BE GONE IN HEART, AND WE'LL DEFINITELY NEVER FADE AWAY.

LOOKING BACK

Our Seniors sure enjoyed great times together. To mention a few: Rachel Mannato, Kara Bardeen and Becky Frye goofed off before the fun night. Crystal Kelly, Gina Palermo, and Emily O'Donnell collected posters of their favorite musicians. Monty Hankin, Andy Finer, Andy McGovern and friend quenched their thirst with arms locked. Barefoot corn eaters knew the true pleasures of summer. We won't forget the Eight Red trip to DC. Erin Morris shared the joy of friendship and mood rings with Amanda Carr and little sister Beth.

WEEK

Visitors to Canandaigua Academy during Spirit Week would wonder about our dress code or customs. Monday was formal day. There were satin, brocade and lace galore. Tuesday was pajama day. Flannel and slippers were the attire of choice. Cherry and Gray day colored our spirits. Buy a senior day resulted in humor and creativity beyond belief. Late night float building, inschool activities and a pep rally left the student body exhausted by Friday night. Never fear, by Saturday they rallied for the parade, the game and a homecoming victory dance. Canandaigua certainly has spirit!

FLOAT BUILDING

Take A Look

What do they see?

What do you see?

Looking out across the lake
in the warm summer breeze.

The past, the present, the future,
caught in the vast beauty,
held in an instant.

Treasure the moments
when side by side with friends,
you can pause in the stillness of nature.

Take another look at the beauty of Canandaigua.

The lake, the hills, the valley,
the seasons naturally changing.

Good friends and family, pause to reflect on the beauty so grand.

TO SUM UP THIS YEAR
AND THE YEARS YET TO COME
I'VE BUT ONE IDEA
SO I'LL BEGIN WITH ACT 1
STAGE LIGHTS FADE UP AND READY ON STAGE
THE CAST OF FRESHMEN
UNSURE, BUT UNAFRAID
THE ACTORS ARE PERFECT
AND NOT A WORD IS MISSED
BUT I'LL STOP RAMBLING
FOR I'M SURE YOU GET THE GIST
A BRIEF INTERMISSION
THEN IT'S TIME FOR ACT 2
HOMECOMING AND THE SOPH JOP
TWO MORE FLAWLESS PERFORMANCES WITH NOT EVEN A STUMBLE
BUT AS THE CURTAIN FALLS
SO BEGINS THE STRESS OF THE NEXT SCENE
ACT 3 CARRIES WITH IT
THE EVIL SHADOW OF MIDTERMS
A TRUE TEST OF STRENGTH AND THE ACTORS PREVAIL
WITH ANOTHER PERFECT PERFORMANCE
SOMEHOW A FLAWLESS SHOW
THE TIME HAS FINALLY ARRIVED
FOR THE ACTORS' CURTAIN CALL
BUT IT'S FAR FROM FINAL NOW
YOU'VE THREE MORE YEARS TO CATCH THE SHOW
AND EACH YEAR IT'S DIFFERENT
WITH MERELY ONE REPEATED LINE
"WE ARE THE CLASS OF 2004-
FOR NOW AND FOREVERMORE."

Top center: Freshman girls take a day off from singing to chat and do homework. Top right: Students attempt to make it up the stairs to their next class. Above: Zach Osgood is hard at work in the computer lab. Below: Members of the JV Volleyball team smile for the camera.

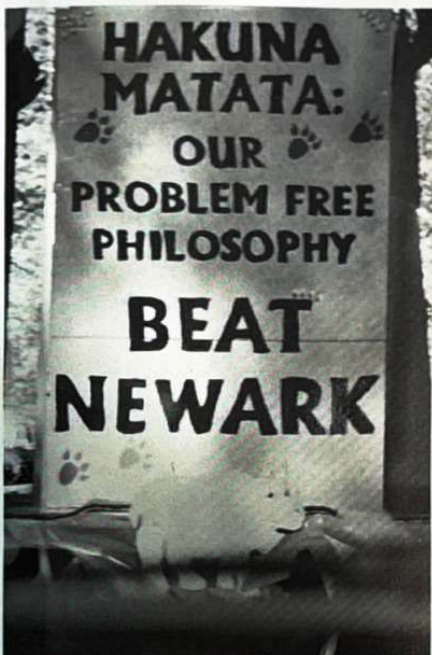

2004

Clockwise: Kerri Sawyer works diligently in the computer lab. Ryan Gaudet takes time out to relax. Nyemade Boiwu shows off her pearly whites. Freshmen mill around the table before English class. Students move down the stairs to their next class. The freshman class gives a word of advice to the football team at homecoming. Art by: Josh Sorel

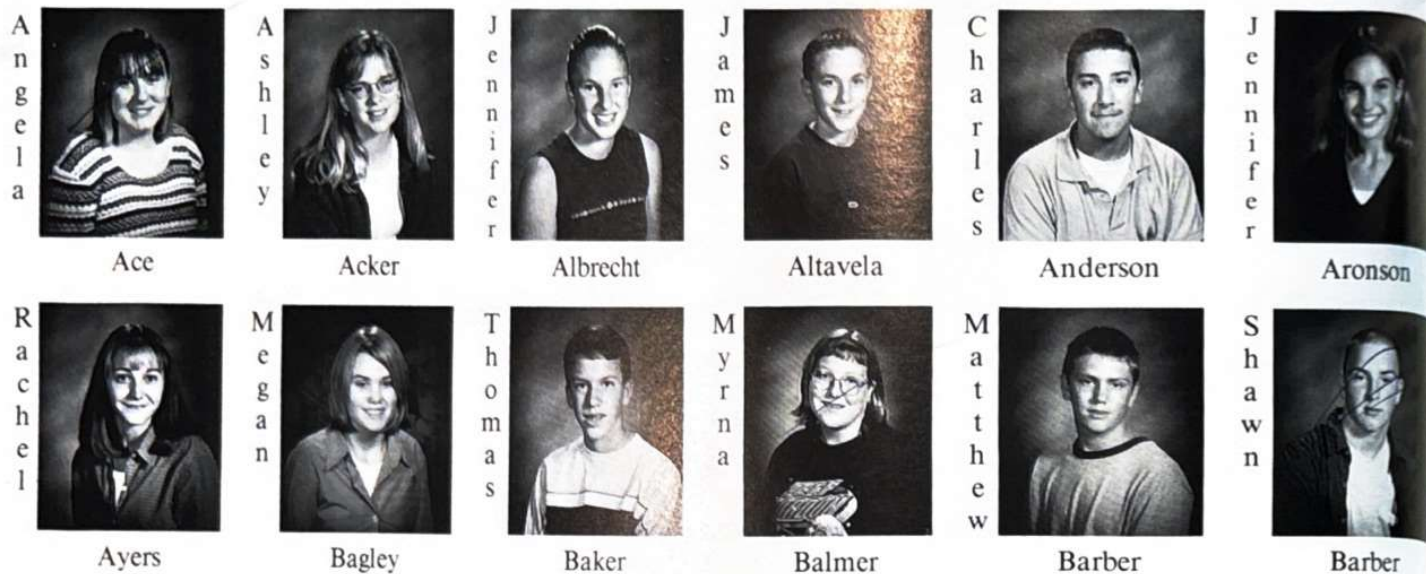

"Hakuna matata! It means no worries for the rest of your days. It's our problem free philosophy, Hakuna Matata."

I met a person at my health club who said,
"You look like an English teacher."
How does an English teacher look?
Let me count the ways:
A noun for a nose,
A verb for a vein.
A fragment for a forehead.
Does he conjugate in public
Or only among friends?
Does he speak in complete sentences?
Is his jacket pretty, his face bold?
Wouldn't it be a novel experience
If, just once, I met someone who said,
"Hey, you look like a big-league
ballplayer"?

It must be the bewitching hour! Mrs. Bowers must think so.

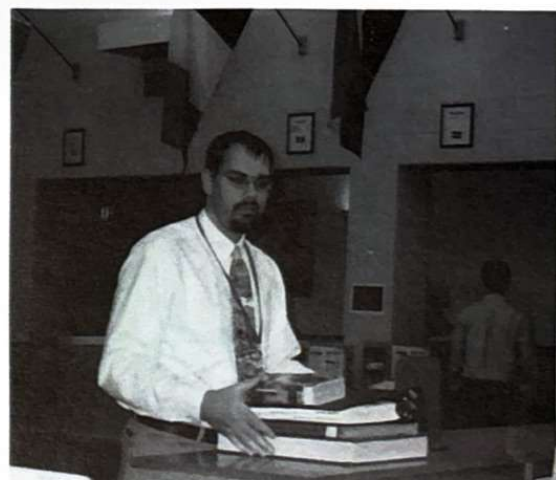

Smile, Mr. Paulson, you're on candid camera.

More and more paperwork, right, Mr. Holmes? There are just not enough hours in the day.

Wow, unbelievable! The first time in years Mr. Rosinski has not worn a shirt and tie!!!!!! Way to go Mr. Rosinski. We all applaud you.

Mr. Batemen looks exhausted. It's a hard day's work, working with us rascals!

Right: "To be or not to be" in this room at this moment, that is the question. It'll all be all right, Mrs. Albright. There is always tomorrow! Above: Mrs. Gerella helps a student with her project.

CA Graduates of Distinction 2000

In 1994, the Canandaigua City School District Board of Education established the Canandaigua Academy Graduates of Distinction program, designed to recognize distinguished lifetime achievement by graduates of Canandaigua Academy.

The Canandaigua community was invited to nominate persons deserving of this high honor. Twenty-eight honorees were inducted in the first five years. Their plaques hang in the main corridor at Canandaigua Academy.

The entire community celebrates as five new members join this illustrious group. Their personal and professional accomplishments are outstanding. Their contributions to community and society are profound. Their example will shine as a beacon of inspiration to all students of the Academy, and indeed, the entire Canandaigua community.

We salute the 2000 Canandaigua Academy Graduates of Distinction

This year we welcomed our third new vice principal, Ms. Necia Emerson. Mr. Greg Herbst and Mr. Jim Simmons joined us as VPs in the middle and end of the last school year. Already they've worked together as a great team. We still hear from Mr. Grimm, Mr. Kenney, and Ms. Buresch. They miss CA but are enjoying their new positions as principals elsewhere in NYS. We wish them well.

Mr. Eugene Worthington Physical Education Period 4, Gym

Five minutes before the recent Student-faculty basketball game
My mind played videotapes of Fall afternoons when I was fifteen,

When basketball was my consuming passion.

We played for hours before darkness chased us.

Five minutes into the student-faculty game
I realized one can't play from memory.

I dribbled a ball into an opponent's hand
And they threw a pass away.

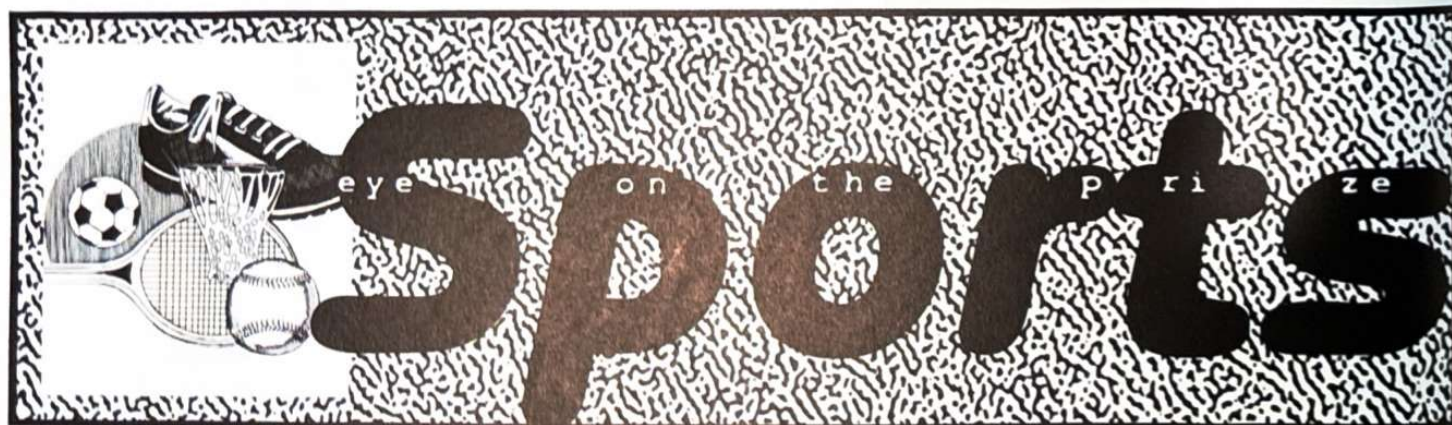

I blew an easy lay-up
And realized I was playing in the past tense.

-by Mel Glenn

Ayers joins 2,000 club

□ The CA senior reaches a scoring milestone as the Braves open the sectionals with a 25-point victory.

By RACHEL E. DEWEY
Messenger Post Staff
CANANDAIGUA — Becky Ayers made history yesterday as No. 1-seeded Canandaigua Academy played its first game in the Section V Class A tournament.

In CA's 56-31 victory over Spencerport, Ayers passed the 2,000-point mark for her high school career when she scored her first 10 points. That was one of two career highlights yesterday for the CA senior.

Ayers believes she is now the eighth Section V girl to reach 2,000 points. "It was so exciting," she said. "After reaching 1,000 points midway through last season, I knew 2,000 was within reach."

CA coach John Johnson escorted Ayers to half-court at the next timeout and announced her achievement to the crowd, which responded with a standing ovation.

Her teammates presented her with gifts and handmade signs to commemorate the occasion.

Then it was time to get back to business.

Ayers' second highlight was her season-high 33 points yesterday. She hit three 3-pointers and also posted eight rebounds and had three steals. She posted her career-high 34 points against Victor during her sophomore year.

CANNON

CA's own student newspaper has earned national recognition once again. Quill & Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, named Cannon as one of the best newspapers in the world, giving it the International First Place Award. The Cannon staff was also honored by the Empire State School Press Association with the Gold All-New York Rating for Best Newspaper. Several staffers were also awarded for editorials and commentaries as well as sports and news stories. The American Scholastic Press, National Scholastic Press, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association honored Cannon with a First Place for Best Newspaper.

YOUTH COURT

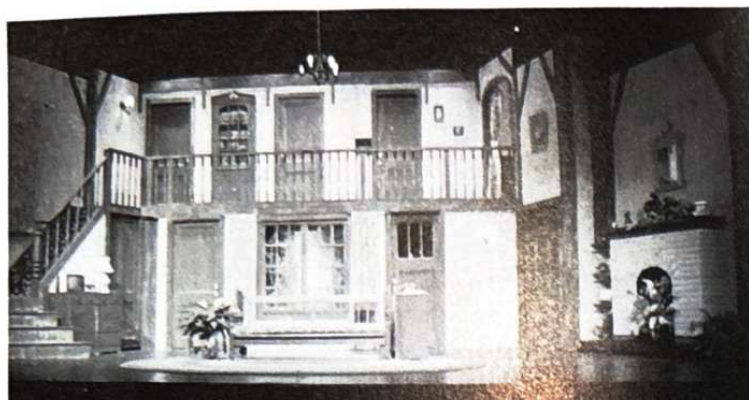

Youth Court is a voluntary alternative to the criminal justice system for young people who have committed certain violations and misdemeanors, and have pleaded guilty. It is a unique court run for and by young people. Youth court offers a great deal to both offenders and volunteers, who benefit by receiving a law related education, and opportunities to promote self esteem, self improvement and to develop a healthy attitude and understanding of the law.

This is a STAR magnolia tree.
Each time we look at it, we will think of Geoff
and remember him in our hearts.

This tree will send its roots deep into the soil. It will thrust its sprouts through the earth's crust above. It will unfurl its tender buds like banners to announce the arrival of spring. It will feel the warmth of the sun on its branches and the blessing of the morning dew on its leaves.

A SMALL BOY

by John Magliola

A small boy looked at a star
And began to weep
And the star said,
Boy why are you weeping?
And the boy said,
I will never be able to touch you.
And the star answered,
Boy if I were not already in your heart
You would not be able to see me.

This is a STAR magnolia tree.
Each time we look at it, we will think of Geoff
and remember him in our hearts.

C.T.A. BOWLING FOR SCHOLARS

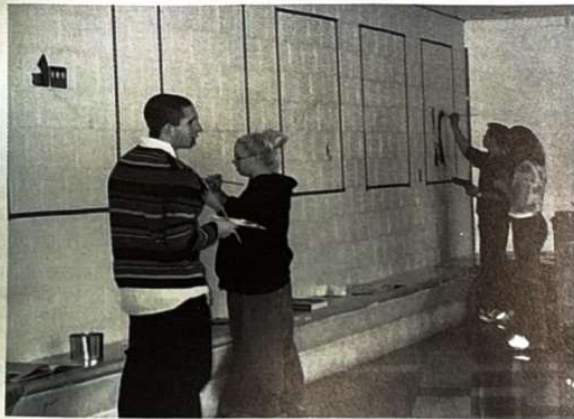

Every year the Canandaigua Teachers Association sponsors a Bowling Tournament to raise money for the Scholarship Fund. It is an afternoon filled with many smiles, many laughs, many gutters, and a few strikes. A good time is had by all, and alot of money is raised for the kids.

We say "good bye" and bid a fond farewell to old friends and "hello" to new friends. We'll miss the colorful figures and we'll miss Mrs. Noralee Bailey, too. Art is an avenue for us to creatively express our different points of view.

To our audience, thank you for taking time to ponder, to reflect on, and to respect our art. To our CA artists, thank you for sharing your time, your creativity, and personal visions with us throughout our school and the community.

Hello and thank you to new and distant views by Rit Bottorf, Danielle Hampton, Erin O'Dell, Amanda Van Buren, and Brig Krebs, students in Mrs. Elliott's Drawing and Painting VI class.

The 2001 Academian is the official yearbook of Canandaigua Academy, 1 Academy Circle, Canandaigua, NY 14424. This is the 105th edition of the Academian and includes 208 pages, 48 pages were printed in color. There is a special gatefold in color in the beginning of the book. The entire book is printed on 80# enamel paper. There were 950 copies printed. The cover is lithicoat with an embossed foil stamp. The estimated cost of the book is $35,000.00. Photos were taken by Stegall's Photography. The theme: A Different Point of View was carried throughout the book using photos, writings, fonts, and the eye emblem. The eye art on the cover was designed by Danielle Hampton.

The Academian would like to give thanks to: Angie Cagianelli, Beth Lamme, Jenn Muckley, Josh Sorel, Steven Bournival, Mrs. Bottorf, Ms. Bowers, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Friend, Mrs. Winston, Mrs. Bix, Mrs. Erdle, Mrs. Bell, Mr. Don Colonio, Mr. Perhamus, and our Taylor Representative Barbara Stockslader. This would not have been possible without you all. Thank You!!!

YOU ARE HERE

This is the
"Age of Connectivity"
and you're in it.

You are everywhere,
thanks to the Internet.

E-mail a friend in Bangalor, shop for cool shoes at some European e-tailer, or even watch a web-cast concert from overseas, and all from your desktop.

The world's getting smaller.

Might even feel crowded at times.

Chill. Look for signs along the road to help you find your way in this brave new world and enjoy the ride.

What a golden year for sports.

Michael Johnson won two gold medals in the 400 meter and 4 x 400 meter relay in the Sydney Olympics.

(Must have been the shoes.)

Multiple medals also went to Maurice Green and to Marion Jones, who took home three gold and two bronze.

She's the first woman to win five medals in one Olympics.

Tiger Woods did it again.
And again.
And again.

As the PGA Tour Player of the year, he placed first in tournament after tournament, including the U.S. Open, the British Open and the PGA Championship.

The golden girls of soccer settled for silver in Sydney.

Under a Shaq attack.

Shaquille O'Neal, with Kobe Bryant, shot the Lakers to victory against the Indiana Pacers in the NBA finals.

GAME SET MATCH

Lance rules. Armstrong

conquered the Alps and silenced cynics, winning his second consecutive Tour de France.

His comeback from cancer makes him a double role model, to athletes and cancer patients alike.

The "Subway Series" made baseball big news.

For the first time in 44 years the New York Yankees and the New York Mets went head-to-head at the World Series.

New York came out on top. (As in Yankees.)

The Williams sisters

continued to take the tennis world by storm. Rivals on opposite sides of the net, they're unstoppable as partners.

Venus topped a stellar year with wins at Wimbledon and the U.S. Open.

She took the gold at the Sydney Olympics in singles, and paired with Serena to take the gold in doubles as well.

It wasn't in the stars. The New Jersey Devils took the Stanley Cup back from the Dallas Stars after their nail-biting double overtime victory in game six.

D-FENSE!

The Baltimore Ravens extraordinary defense gave them the edge and a 34-7 win over the New York Giants in Super Bowl XXXV.

What goes around comes around.

Look behind the technology hype and you're sure to find recycled trends. Oh, the irony.

It's the 70s all over again.

Large tinted lenses make for look-at-me sunglasses and disco-era hairstyles return with "wings" and feathered bangs reminiscent of Farrah Fawcett's famous locks.

A new twist is the bright burst of hair color, maybe a leftover from the punk and glam rock resurgence last year.

STATE OF COOL REFRESH

A rhinestone belt holds up your denims? Glittery studs on your faded jeans?

Totally.

England's Prince William took a "gap year" before college, following his mother's example of service and humanitarianism.

His volunteer and environmental work in Chile shows that the man who will be king is a true prince of hearts.

For the guys, the mop top is back with the "shag" hairstyle.

The bed-head hairstyles of Ricky Martin and Kevin of the Backstreet Boys is typical of the macho look many stars like.

Leather whatever.

Leather is everywhere. Leather pants. Leather boots.

Everything else sparkles and shines.

We heard lots of wedding bells.

Two Backstreet Boys got hitched, Madonna married her Guy. Catherine Zeta-Jones wed Michael Douglas, and Jennifer and Brad tied the knot.

Caution. Heavy traffic ahead.

As in new millennium traffic. It seems like the more info there is, the harder it is to be informed. Technology promises a bright new age but it's still hard to communicate.

Some things never change.

The Pope journeyed to the Holy Land and prayed for peace, while conflicts between Israelis and Palestinians raged.

Allegedly linked to the unrest,

the USS Cole was bombed off the coast of Yemen.

This year we remember with honors entertainer Steve Allen, actors Walter Matthau, Jason Robards, and Alec Guinness.

Crash. Technology and music went head to head, as 19-year-old

Napster co-founder Shawn Fanning battled the music industry over copyright usage of downloaded music.

Firestone tires exploded on highways across the nation forcing one of the largest recalls in history.

Hillary Clinton stepped out of the White House and into the U.S. Senate, a first.

And the nation waited days for the drama of the 43rd presidential election to unfold.

Another first. After tight battles and recounts,

Florida's 25 electoral votes were finally awarded to Texas governor George W. Bush in the closest presidential race in history. In another dramatic sequence of events, tensions between U.S. and Cuba rose over the custody battle of 6-year-old Elian Gonzalez who was finally reunited with his father and sent back to Cuba amid anti-Castro protests.

Television gives a crash course in life lessons.

The nation tuned in to see who would be voted out in this summer's biggest smash "Survivor".

The ultimate survivor, Richard Hatch, beat all odds in order to outlast his island mates.

ANYTHING 'ON'?

T.V.

101

Shows like "Survivor" and "Angel" mean getting rid of the bad guys.

They showed that we all experience feelings of alienation, but we are not alone.

In fact, putting up with siblings, family issues and struggling to "find ourselves" are common denominators for us all.

Inventions topped inventions.

This year, we saw cable lines not only enhance television but surfing speed and e-commerce as well.

Electronic organizers rock.

From the palm of your hand you can check e-mail, invest in futures or buy a present for Mom.

Oh yeah, and get organized.

The newest digital cameras have greater picture quality as well as roomier disk space, while the next generation MP3s are smaller, faster, more portable, and provide better-than-ever sound quality.

Toyota was among the future-thinking car companies to introduce hybrid cars.

Half -electric and half gasoline-powered, these new wheels will eventually be as easy on the pocketbook as they are on the planet.

Playstation 2

and the latest Nintendo made the virtual world more entertaining.

SHOCKING!

Performers

like Hoku and Jakob Dylan of the Wallflowers emerged from the shadows of their famous parents.

Blink-182

lets their California style influence their wardrobe and music, which led them to an MTV music award for "All the Small Things."

Globalization

has had a profound effect on the style-music industry.

Latin's back with a bang with the return of Carlos Santana and the rise of Enrique Iglesias along with Christina Aguilera's release of a Latin-style CD this year.

And we saw Ricky Martin going global with a tour reaching as far as Austral-Asia.

On the local scene,

many underground performers have been rocketed into the mainstream, as was Moby, the one-time New York DJ, with the immensely popular "Play," image is everything.

LIVE BABY LIVE!

Madonna came alive (what else new) with her new "Music," reinvigorating her original dance-music roots.

Unbelievably, this mother of two has topped the charts for some three decades now.

Her concert,

performed in a London pub, was one of the most-watched events on the Internet to date.

And with MTV, VH1, Napster, and others, the faces of today's performers are seen live everywhere.

For pop princesses like Britney Spears, Christina Aguilera and Aaliyah, as well as the ubiquitous boy bands, image is as big as (maybe bigger than) their music.

For performers like the Backstreet Boys, LFO, 98° and especially *NSYNC, style is the substance of pop.

Check out their live shows.

Legendary actor Robert Redford stepped behind the camera to direct the mystical golf movie "The Legend of Bagger Vance."

Will Smith

plays Vance, the wise caddie who guides golfer Matt Damon through more than just the perfect golf game.

RIFFLE LIFE

Rack up another hit for Jim Carey.

Irresistible even when he's covered in green from head to foot.

The Whos in Whoville are a must-see in Dr. Suess's "How the Grinch Stole Christmas."

SHOOTING STAR

SHOOTING STAR

SHOOTING STAR

There was something for everybody on the big screen this year. claymation genius brought the chickens of Tweedy's farm hilariously to life as they worked up a plan to fly the coop in "Chicken Run." "Shanghai Noon," with Owen Wilson and Jackie Chan heading out West to rescue Princess Pei-Pei, played by Lucy Liu. And Buzz Lightyear came to the rescue, and beyond, leading the troops on a mission to bring Woody back in "Toy Story 2."

"Pay It Forward" proved it's possible to change the world and it doesn't have to be a big thing.

Kevin Spacey, Helen Hunt and wonderkid Haley Joel Osment inspired us all to do a favor or two or three and make this world a better place.

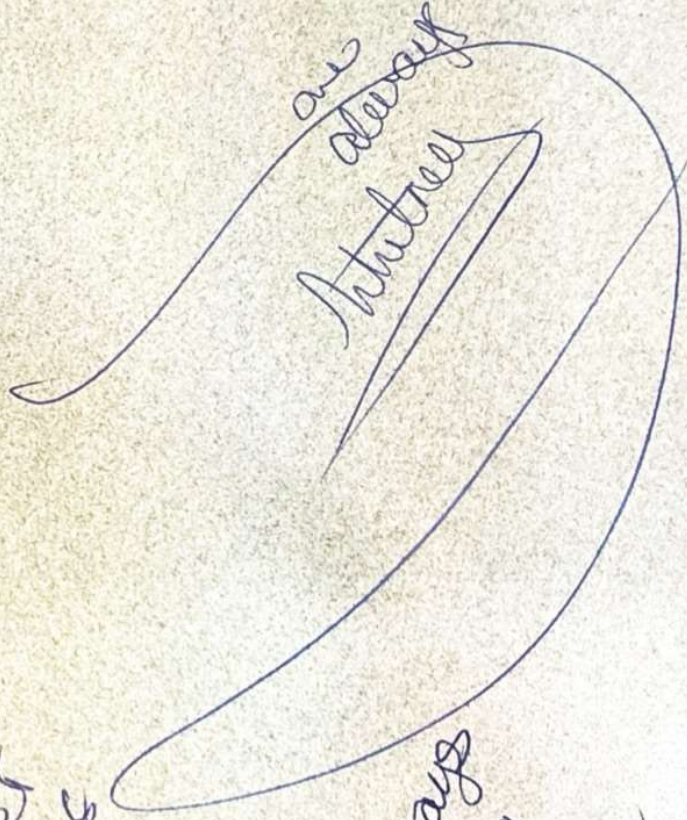

X-termination avoided, thanks to the X-Men.

Enlightened Professor Xavier provides a safe haven for the world's newest and most persecuted minority, a group of mutant, genetically-gifted human beings called the X-Men. Their struggle against hostile Government agencies and mutant supremacist Magneto made "X-Men" one of this summer's biggest smash hits.

April 1

What a year! Glad it's over.
Well we've had our ups & downs but all together we've had a good and close friendship. I'm glad you came & talk to me about anything. I hope to see you over the summer so we can chill in the hammock, lol and of course swim too!
Hope we stay friends!

April,

Have a good summer
and try to stay out of trouble. Even if it comes to you. If you ever need to talk then I'm here Olay. I'll see you next year.
